Heritage Open Days is England's largest festival of history and culture, and over ten days in September, venues across the district will throw open their doors for FREE, inviting you to come and discover hidden places, peek behind the scenes and try out new experiences. England's contribution to the European Heritage Days scheme and co-ordinated today by the National Trust with support from players of the People's Postcode Lottery, it's known as 'the local national festival'.

In partnership with

This year the festival focuses on Architecture, not just buildings, and bridges - but gardens and greenhouses, beehives and batboxes, railways and rollercoasters too - anything which is built, by humans or by animals! We look forward to discovering more about the structures that surround us - there are so many stories to tell, celebrating the makers, the menders, the materials and more!

We hope you'll join us (12 - 21 September) to celebrate the unique heritage of Lancaster and Morecambe Bay!
